Our promise

We promise an amazing experience for children in the school holidays. We do this by only choosing venues that match our high list of requirements and activities that will appeal to kids and offer maximum fun.

Our fantastic staff are rigorously vetted and fully trained, so you're safe in the knowledge that children are being well cared for throughout their time at camp.

Barracudas has every child in mind. We know each child is unique, with different interests and personalities. With an unrivalled number of activities, 6 sessions a day and a choice for every session, whatever they're into, they'll be tonnes to entertain them at our holiday camps.

Recommended by parents & approved by officials!

All Barracudas camps are registered with Ofsted and we've been rated Outstanding more times than any comparable competitor!

We've been independently rated over 1,400 times on Trustpilot! We pride ourselves on the reviews we receive from our camps. Hear what our parents have to say about their experiences with us here ...

"The kids have such a great time here and look forward to coming back every term. The staff are so friendly - it's really reassuring to know they are in good hands and having fun while I have to work!"

Mum of 2

"I felt she was very safe and well looked after. The security was brilliant and the staff were friendly. Great activities for the children. Great holiday camp for children and great for working parents."

Carrie Carter

"Like most mums I get very nervous leaving my little ones when I go to work because my youngest gets very anxious, but I told the camp manager and she kept a special eye on her for me. Highly recommend."
